Château Ksara, Lebanon's oldest winery, was established in 1857 when Jesuit Fathers inherited the estate and began farming a 27-hectare plot of land to produce Lebanon's first non-sweet red wine. In doing so, they laid the foundations of Lebanon's modern wine industry.

It is worth mentioning, however, that they were merely continuing a 5,000 year-old trading tradition. Lebanon sits on the site of ancient Phoenicia, one of the world's oldest merchant civilizations and one of the first to sell wines to other nations.

As the country's oldest winery, its mission is to not only continue its unique, centuries-old practice of winemaking, but to also implement the newest and most innovative processes, and continue leading winemaking in Lebanon for generations to come.

CHATEAU KEFRAYA

UN TERROIR, UNE ÂME, UN GRAND VIN

Located in the West Bekaa Valley, the large estate of Château Kefraya has been the Bustros family's property for generations. The castle is built starting 1946 on an artificial hill used by the Romans centuries ago to observe their troop movements.

Founder and visionary Michel de Bustros undertakes massive works to implant Château Kefraya's vineyards on those magnificent hillsides. The first vines are planted in 1951 and in 1979 – despite the Lebanese civil war (1975 – 1990) – Château Kefraya starts exporting its wines to France. In 1997, American wine critic Robert Parker awards Comte de M 1996 a 91/100 qualifying it "An amazing accomplishment in Lebanon."

Chateau Musar

The wines of Chateau Musar are unique expressions from a country with an ancient wine-making culture. French in origin, the Hochar family arrived in Lebanon in the 12th Century, "Preux Chevaliers," and have remained there ever since.

At 34° N of the equator, the centre of Bekaa Valley is further south than any part of Spain or Italy and as such gets its fair share of sunshine during the summer months. The Musar vineyards are situated at relatively high altitudes, (around 1000 metres above sea level) and so benefit from cool nights and seasonal temperatures (it often snows on the vines in the winter and summer can be searingly hot) resulting in longer ripening periods. Vines thrive in this pure "alpine" environment requiring little or no intervention to remain healthy.

Every wine of Chateau Musar is produced naturally with a "non-interventionist" wine-making philosophy and the winery was the first in Lebanon to implement organically certified viticulture. At harvest time, the grapes are hand-picked by Bedouins in the cool of the morning to preserve freshness, and driven in sizeable trucks over the mountains to the winery at Ghazir.

"When you are a winemaker you have the luck to work with something that is alive and you should never kill it." Serge Hochar

Chateau Musar

CHATEAU MUSAR 2003	85.00
Cabernet Sauvignon, Cinsault & Carignan. A complex, intriguing array of aromas: toasted bread, cigar box, fresh tea, plums & Eastern spices. On the palate, there are mature fruits: plums, figs & cherries with hints of tea leaves & dark chocolate. The first taste releases complex notes of currants, cherries & spice
CHATEAU MUSAR 2008	95.00
Cabernet Sauvignon, Cinsault & Carignan. An alluring nose of black and red fruits, cherries, coffee, leather & cloves. Rich, warm, & concentrated
CHATEAU MUSAR 1990	255.00
Cabernet Sauvignon, Cinsault & Carignan. A vintage in which the harvest occurred early due to the war. Green pepper, mint & blackcurrant flavours
CHATEAU MUSAR 1980	450.00
Cabernet Sauvignon, Cinsault & Carignan. Very fresh and clean with a lovely tobacco nose. Mildly pickled aromas share the stage with typical leaf & cedar scents. This is darker and denser than some of the other wines from the 1980s. A perfect candidate for roasted meats
